Who and What...

High Street Wine Co is the youngest Brother and Son of the Allen Family (think Barristers Block & Boston Bay Wines). Lachlan has been involved in the family business working along side his mother Jan and brother James since day one.

With guidance from Jan and James, High Street came about to get wines from the Country Roads to the High Streets.

Utilising the families' estates from Adelaide Hills and Wrattenbully, our aim is to bring to life high quality wines with a true reflection of the regions they're grown.

High Street is here to make wines for today. Vegan friendly, sustainably grown, lightweight bottles and 100% recycled paper stock.
